MONTGOMERY

Compiled by Catherine Cameron Wilkerson Bryan (Mrs. John H.)
West Point, Mississippi, April, 1959

This is primarily a record of the descendants of the ten children of Hugh Montgomery, who settled in the Lancaster District of South Carolina, as early as 1757: John, Hugh, Jr., James, Robert, Alexander, Samuel, William, Joseph Montgomery and their sisters: Mary Ann Montgomery Mackey, and _____ Montgomery Kirk.

1932218

In chapter 12 on page 45 you will note that Alexander Barkley Montgomery stated that his grandfather was named William Montgomery. I am sure that Alexander B. Montgomery should have known the name of his grandfather but the records in South Carolina prove to me that his grandfather was named Hugh Montgomery. It is possible that his name was either Hugh William Montgomery or William Hugh Montgomery.

Mistakes will be found in these pages. Records have been sent to me in long hand and some typewritten. They have been typed and retyped many times and as they pass through different hands errors will creep into them.

I do hope that this record will be of some help to others as they try to trace their family history. I have tried to give references for proof where possible.

MONTGOMERY

CHAPTER I

Alexander Barkley Montgomery of Miss., Tenn., and Calif., wrote a genealogy of the family in 1873/4 in which he stated: "The Montgomerys were originally from Scotland and settled in South Carolina before the Revolution. My grandfather was named William and had ten children: Hugh, John, James, Robert, William, Alexander, Samuel, Joseph, Mary Ann and another daughter whose name is forgotton. All of these Montgomery brothers were in the Revolutionary War except Joseph. A cousin, Hugh Montgomery, married a sister of Agnes Nancy Barkley and settled in Georgia." He then gives some of the descendants of all of the brothers except James, of whom he said: "James married and had one son, James, Jr., who moved to West Tenn." About the sister Mary Ann he said: "Mary Ann married a Mr. Mackey of Adams Co., Miss."

After several years of research, contacting descendants of these brothers, writing many letters, etc, we have concluded that the following is true: A certain Hugh Montgomery came to Lancaster District S.C. as early as 1757; Jan. 10th of that year he bought land from John Linn. Later by last will and testament, dated October 22, 1785, Hugh Montgomery bequeathed land to the following: John, Hugh, James, Robert, William, Alexander, Samuel, Joseph and son-in-law John Kirk. In 1793 in Lancaster Co., S. C., James, Robert, Hugh and John Montgomery and John Kirk sold a tract of 200 acres of land to Jonathan Mackey, land they had inherited from their father, Hugh Montgomery.

We have not been able to find the name of the wife of Hugh Montgomery, Sr., or I as we shall call him, nor have we been able to definitely prove where he lived before coming to the Waxhaw Settlement in S. C. Some sources say he came from Virginia, was born in 1727 and was the son of Hugh and Caroline Anderson Montgomery of Augusta Co., Va.; Others believe he came from Penna.; and still others believe that he may have come from Ireland or Scotland directly to these shores.

Claiborne's "History of Mississippi" says that Alexander Montgomery was the first of his family to come to Miss. He settled in Adams County in 1793 on Thompson's Creek. He was followed to Miss. by four of his brothers and one sister: William, Samuel, Robert, Joseph, and Mary Ann, who married a Mr. Mackey of Adams Co., Miss.

We shall begin this history of the family with John Montgomery, who was probably the oldest son of Hugh Montgomery, Sr. or I and who remained in S. C.

     All these children were born in Washington County, Miss. and later moved to Florida.
   - E. Franklin Kirk married and left a family of boys and girls in Middle Tenn.
   - F. Hugh Kirk was killed at Franklin, Tenn. unm.
   - G. _____ Kirk married a Mr. Snell of Murfreesboro, Tenn. and had children, one named Edna.

II. John Kirk, b. about 1790 in S.C. married Sarah Cousar of South Carolina. We have found data on only two boys:
   - A. _____ Kirk, a son, died on boat enroute to New Orleans from California. Buried Stops Landing, Miss.
   - B. John Cousar Kirk was born in 1820, either in Tenn. or S. C. In 1849 he and his brother set out from New Orleans for California. Because of the illness of his brother they returned in 1851. In that year John C. Kirk bought land near Rosedale, Miss. and named this place Waxhaw after his family home place in S. C. He married in 1858 Edwina Ann Melchoir, dau. of John Casper Melchoir, who came to America from France in 1828, first settling at Frankfort, Ky. where Mrs. Kirk was born. John C. Kirk died in 1887 and Mrs. Kirk died in 1907 at the age of seventy years. Children:
     1. Pearl Kirk, married Frank Mae Scott of Rosedale and has descendants there.
     2. Anita Kirk married 1st William Martin of Rosedale, Miss. and had one daughter, Genevieve Martin, who married Echol

Marshall of Roanoke, Va. and by whom she had two children. Anita Kirk Martin m. 2nd, W. A. Stone of Rosedale, Miss. and 3rd, P. B. Jennings of Roanoke, Va.

3. John Melchoir Kirk was the oldest child of John C. and Edwina Ann Kirk. b. 9-1-1859 at Waxhaw plantation. He attended school at Frankfort, Ky. and University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn. In 1887 he married Bessie Shattuck, who died in 1896.
Children:

S. C. MONTGOMERY, ALEXANDER

Lancaster Dist. --- 28 May 1851 personally appeared before the Judge of the Court of Ordinary, Alexander MONTGOMERY, resident of Lancaster Dist. aged (from the best evidence he has, having no record) about eighty-seven or eighty-eight yrs of age --benefit under act of 1832...Entered service about beginning of 1780 being draughted. Marched from his home near where ne now lives and where he has since always resided to the Savannah River under Capt. Robert Montgomery; remained in that place of rendevous. Near the River about 10 days when he was taken sick and was sent home on a baggage wagon; discharged. Remained sick at home a long time before he was able to travel. Later he went to join the army of Gen. Sumter under Capt. Henry Coffee. Hearing of Gate's defeat they retreated and joined Sumter at Catawba River. At Battle of Fishing Creed; retreated. He got to the river but was not able to swim. Remembers seeing Capt. Robert Crawford there. This tour about two weeks; returned home. Next went under Capt. Coffey, joined Sumter at Blackstock. Later marched under Lieut. John McMurray to Eutaw Springs; in that battle. Never received a discharge; never knew he would be called upon for one. Went anytime he was called by an officer; gave his services wherever required. Old and infirm.

Jacksonland, S. C. Sept. 17th 1851.
Sir: I do hereby certify that I have often heard my Father in relating events... during the Revolutionary War speak of the service of Alexander Montgomery who is still living in this section, something over 90 yrs of age. DATA FROM MRS. MOFFATT WARE, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C.

These Montgomerys are buried at A. R. P. Church graveyard, called Old Pisgah Cemetery, nothing there but the old graveyard. This was the first burial place in this vicinity, in the late 1700s. It is located about three miles east from the town of Kings Mountain, N. C., on what is now called Dr. J. Anthony's farm.

Martha Montgomery, b. July 31, 1816, age 18 yrs old.
Joseph Montgomery, d. Sept. 20, 1841, age 77 yrs. old.
Hannah Montgomery, d. Oct. 31, 1850, age 8 yrs. old.
James Montgomery, d. Sept. 23, 1829, age 89 yrs. old.
Jane Montgomery, d. June 25, 1847, age 26 yrs. 6 mo. 28 days.

Letter from Mrs. John M. Bell, Chester, S. C., Feb. 1931 to Mrs. Ware. Mrs. Bell now dec'd

"These Montgomery folks buried at Old Pisgah are Mr. Bell's Montgomery ancestors. That James Montgomery, b. 1740; d. 1829, whose wife was Margaret, were Mr. Bell's gt-gt-grandparents. James sold his Chester Co., S. C. land in 1801 and removed to Lincoln Co., N. C. and settled upon Crowder's Creek, in which is now Gaston Co. His son Joseph and his wife Hannah, also removed from Chester Co. about the same time to the same N. C. Community. We have notes on deeds, wills etc. of these folks, but too lengthly to copy off by hand.

Mr. Bell has another Montgomery line as his gt-gt-grandfater William Bell of Fairfield had as his wife Anna Montgomery, daughter of Hugh Montgomery, who came to this country about 1760. Their son, John Bell, married Margaret Montgomery, daughter of that James Montgomery of Crowder's creek, thus the son John married the daughter of his mother's brother or first cousin, as the old people always said they were cousins. I know of another Anna Montgomery who lived in Ireland until her marriage and who came to Fairfield Co., She was the dau. of Thomas Montgomery of Co. Antrim and first cousin of Anna Montgomery Bell, wife of William Bell."

Letter Aug. 19, 1931, from Mrs. Bell to Mrs. Ware.

"We never did get any further towards pooling the Montgomery data; perhaps we can do it this fall. Mr. Bell is descended from two Montgomery pioneers -- Hugh Montgomery and James Montgomery, who were probably very close kin themselves. Hugh came over to S. C. 1760-67. James is buried at Pisgah, you remember, and from the stone it seems he was born in 1740. James Montgomery buried at Pisgah, made his will March 23, 1825. It was recorded at Oct. session, 1829. His wife was Margaret and his sons were Joseph and James, his daughter Elizabeth was the wife of John Bell, while James Carson of Gastonia, N. C. married another dau. No other children are mentioned. James son of James, Sr. died Dec. 26, 1842 aged 71 years without lineal heirs. Children of James and Margaret Carson, were Margaret, Martha, Andrew, James, Joseph, Anna, Robert and Mary Carson."

MONTGOMERYS OF FAIRFIELD DIST. S. C. AND MISS.

In 1773 there were among the passengers of a certain ship that left Ireland seven Montgomerys -- four brothers and three sisters: 1. James, 2. David, 3. Hugh, 4. Charles, 5. Margaret, 6. Jane, 7. Hugh Montgomery of Chester Co., S. C.

Data taken from "The Mackeys" by Beatrice M. Doughtie and from wills of S. C.

The Court of records of Chester Co., S. C. show a series of affidavits signed Nov. 1, 1793 regarding: Hugh Montgomery grants and signed by Agnes Morris, John Reynolds (Rennals), William Montgomery and Andrew Hemphill (T-230)

One tract of land of 200 acres on the south side of Hages (Hauges) Creek, a branch of Rocky Creek, waters of Catawba River, bounded by Geo. Morris on SE and on SW by James Pickette and the old Rocky Mount Road, granted to Hugh Montgomery 9-18-1765.

Another tract near the same place of 200 acres granted to Hugh Montgomery 7-13-1770.

This same land was deeded to Jonathan Mackey, William Land Mackey, William Montgomery, David Montgomery, Greenberry Montgomery and the children and heirs of George Morris at various times.

From the records as shown I believe that a certain Hugh Montgomery came to S. C. as early as 1765 and settled in Chester Co. Name of his wife is never mentioned. This Hugh had the following people related to him. I am not sure of the exact relationship:

I. William Montgomery, never married, died between 1823, when will was signed and 10-11-1850 when will was probated. Left estate of "lands originally granted to Hugh Montgomery and heired by him" to his nephews, great-nephews and nieces: Senah Harden, Mary Harden, daus. of Wm. Harden; Greenberry Montgomery, Sr., "my brother"; Greenberry Montgomery, Jr.; David Montgomery, Lucy Simmons, Wm. L. Mackey, Charlotte Thompson, Susanna Blake, Alexander K. Montgomery, Ben S. Morris, son of Elizabeth Kilgore, dec'd. (Chester Co. Apt. no. 96, pkg. 16-6)

II. Mary Montgomery, married William Land, who was granted land in Chester Co., S. C. in 1776 and died about 1782.
Children:
1. Celia Land m. Jonathan Mackey (1772-1850) and had only one child; William Land Mackey b. 11-3-1800; d. 11-9-1856
2. Charlotte Land, m. Sherrod Thompson, lived in York, Co., S. C.

III. Agnes _____(Montgomery ?) m. Geo. Morris, who died in May 1824 estate settled in Jan Court 1826 to heirs:
1. Elizabeth Morris, m. Wm. Kilgore
2. Mary Morris
3. Massey Morris, m. Abner Smith
4. dau. who married a Mr. Montgomery, had son Wm. Montgomery.

IV. GreenBerry Montgomery, Sr. m. Judith S. Knighton, dau. of Thomas Knighton, who died in Fairfield Co., S. C. about 1825. Her bros. and sisters were: Samuel, Thomas, Moses Knighton and Jane, Millie and Elizabeth Knighton. Also, Susannah, wife of Jonathan B. Mickle, Sr.
Children:
a. Greenberry Montgomery, Jr.
b. Lucy Simmons
c. Matilda Beckham
d. _____ Thompson

V. possibly a daughter who married William Harden

From the FAMILY TREE BOOK by W. Thomas Smith, pp. 105-109

HUGH MONTGOMERY was a native of Ireland, married Lady Mary Moore of the nobility, settled first in Penna. and later in Salisbury, N. C. He died in Rowan Co., N. C. December 23, 1779, leaving one son and seven daughters.

1. Hugh Montgomery, Jr., m. Miss Parnell of Virginia and by her had several children, of whom Lemuel P. Montgomery was a Col. of the 39th Reg. U. S. Inf. and fell in the Battle of Horseshoe, Ala. March 27, 1814 in the 25th year of his age.
   (another source lists his children as: Lemuel, Anthony Newman, Chesed, Hugh, Rush, Rufus and Alexander)
2. Eldest dau. m. Dr. Anthony Newman, who settled in Nashville, Tenn. and whose son Lemuel Daniel Newman, b. in N. C., moved to Ga. and died in Walker Co., in 1851.
3. 2nd daughter married a Mr. Stewart, who settled in Greensboro, Tenn.
4. 3rd daughter married Mr. Blake
5. 4th daughter m. Capt. Edwin Ingram of Richmond County, N. C.
6. 5th daughter married Col. David Campbell, moved to Tenn. He had a son, William B. Campbell
